FROM THE BRIDGE:

This will be my last message to you as Commodore, and I look back over the year with mixed emotions. We have had some successes and some disappointments, but I think that on balance, it has been a good year.

We lost some members through attrition, but replaced them with some new members, so that the total membership remains about the same. We had hoped to gain about 10 members, but that will have to wait until we can manage some improvements for the club.

The sailing program had a good year - thanks to hard work on the part of Betty Kohrman, David Wyatt and the rest of the Race and Sail Committee. I think our sailors made a very commendable showing for a club which has only been in existence for five years.

The House Committee had a stormy year, but will end up in the black - thanks to the efforts of Co-chairmen Les Newcomb, Jack Boice, John Castleberry, and especially Pat Newcomb, Lydia Rayner and the ladies of the Catering Committee. Without their hard work and dedication, I am afraid our financial situation would be rather bleak. Of course there are many others who made important contributions, but space does not permit listing each one of them.

It was a great personal disappointment to me that the swimming pool did not receive greater support from the membership at the Annual meeting, for I am convinced that a pool would be the one thing that would stimulate growth and much greater usage of the club facilities. John McKellar and his special committee did a very good job in presenting the capital improvements, and it looks as though we may be able to put in a parking lot and decking under the club for a small assessment. Then maybe this example of what can be done will allow us to acquire a pool in the next year or two.

I would like to close by encouraging each and every one of you to support your club more in 1987, by working on a committee, by supporting the regularly scheduled events, and just by being there more often. Your presence would be appreciated.

DON RAYNER, M.D.
Commodore

The bar tab may be used on food or spirits - so come on and join the fun!!

For the past nine months the Catering Committee has been very busy - and very successful! Of the eighteen events that LBYC hosted, we have catered ten. The profit in food service only (not including room rentals or bar profits) was slightly over $4,000.00

Catering committee members - Lydia Rayner, Iris Montgomery, and Joan Allen deserve a very special "Thank you" for their voluntary services. Louise Rector, Marcia Patrick, John Montgomery, Carol Sirokman, Bill Welch, Stephanie Bass, Charlie Rector and Marvin Allen have also contributed long hours to make this committee successful. Thank you for a job well done.
