

LBYC AUXILIARY NEWS

At Vrazel's our president, Marcia, called her last meeting to order with her little brass bell, then, in appreciation, presented each officer a green bud vase with red ribbon, a beautiful red rose bud and baby's breath.

"Lucky Lady" Helen Walker won $11.

Winners of contests were: Nell Holmes, "corn count"; Ethel Lawshe and Joan Allen, outfits with most buttons. Other prize winners were Carolyn Simpson, Ethel Lawshe, Sharon Lembright, Clara Marie Mistler, Helen Walker, Mary Lou Klemetson, Jean-Ann Swenson, Diane Edrington, Glee Simmons, Barbara Kimball, Minnie Worth, and Ruth Hyatt.

"Tricks with Scarves" were demonstrated by Jean-Ann Swenson using models Diane Edrington, Nell Holmes, Doris Langton, Carolyn Simpson, and Ruth Hyatt.

Ruth Hyatt made the motion (second by Eleanor Danhoffer) that the Auxiliary accept the following slate of Officers for '88: Clara Marie Mistler, President; Pat Aborn, VP; Ethel Lawshe, 2nd VP; Barbara Kimball, Secretary; and Carolyn Simpson, Treasurer.

Glee Simmons will aid Ruth Hyatt, committee chairman, with the search for bar tables and deck furniture for the Club and will report later.

A motion was made by Ruth Hyatt (second by Doris Langton) that the Auxiliary buy the Santa suit from Marcia for the "Breakfast with Santa" program. (Chairman, Clara Marie Mistler, 868-7365 needs help).

Many hands (and snacks) are needed for the decorating party at the Club Friday night, December 11, to prepare for the "Extravaganza". We ask those coming to the Auxiliary Christmas Extravaganza, December 12, @ 7PM at the Club to bring hors d'oeuvres. Dancing to the Kevin Cuevas band.

DECEMBER 1987

VOL. VI, NO. 12

FROM THE BRIDGE

I would like to use my last article in "The Captain's Log" to extend my special thanks to everyone who has so generously helped me out this year. Thanks to all the committees and volunteers who have worked so hard to make my year as your Commodore a pleasure.

Let us all join in and support next year's officers and committees as you supported this year's.

I have thoroughly enjoyed this past year and it has been a pleasure to represent LBYC. Thanks.

RACE AND SAIL COMMITTEE

The FUN ON THE SOUND series concluded on November 22 with 16 yachts competing! And the winners are: PHRF: 1) PaDoJaRo-Paul Murphy, 2) Driftwood-Craig Nichols, 3) Sea Scape-Pete Shelly, 4) Dancer-Angus McMillan, and 5) Overtime-Dick Marx; PORTSMOUTH: 1) Tom Greicezek, and 2) Kathy Sirokman.

Congratulations to all participants and to Joe Wilson, Craig Nichols, Dick Marx, Terry Nichols, and others whose names I don't have for carrying out a very successful racing series. A special trophy was presented to Bob Simmons who served as a mainstay in starting the races each week in his boat "Tixxai". Several persons assisted him, among whom were Carol Sirokman and Paul Woodward. Thanks!! Someone asked "Now what do we do for fun on Sundays?" Another answered "Look forward to the Super Bowl Regatta in January!" It may be a mistake to put away the sails just yet.

Meanwhile, over on Lake Pontchartrain, the Lake Pontchartrain Racing Circuit was being conducted October 31 thru November 15. LBYC was represented by "Bullet Proof". Those on board were Don Roberts, Charlie Webb, Jud Williams, Charles Morgan, Bruce Page, Rick Oerting, and others. They combined their talents in this five race series to garner overall Class D championship. This included 2 seconds and one first. It is heartwarming to see that years of training on the water and strategy planning at the LBYC watering hole has paid off for this stellar group of yachtsmen. Congrats!!

My own word of thanks to those who served on the '87 Race & Sail Committee. This year has been easy because of their ideas and involvement, a willingness to pitch in and help, a personal investment in their sailing program of LBYC. Had it been within our budget, each of you would have received a huge trophy (that would require no polishing) but you'll have to settle for this word of praise! See you next year!!

HOUSE COMMITTEE

There will only be one steak night in December and that is the 2nd.

We have arrived at the end of another year at LBYC. With the coming of December there will be some changes in normal operations. The Club will be closed on the 24th & 25th. We will be open on Saturday the 26th and Sunday the 27th to give you the opportunity to recover from the broken toys and run-down batteries.

We wish each and every one of you a safe and joyous holiday season and may 1988 be the best year for you and your family.

The following is a list of members who have paid their assessment. If your name does not appear below and you have paid your assessment, please contact your Commodore. If you have not paid, please do so promptly so that work may begin. This list is current as of 11/19/87.
