FROM THE BRIDGE

James: Commodore

Dick: Vice Commodore

Spring

While the Commodore and his bride were off on a Jimmy Buffet style "...Vacation with their hush Puppies on," Lydia and Tom converted the Katrina remains of the old LBYC into a Florabama style hang-out complete with pelicans, hammocks, palms, swings for the young to admire the Gulf sunsets from and Bobbi's artwork. "Mississippi Roads" would admire this oasis.

Our grounds are cleaned and ready for the - LBYC Croquet Tournament – also known as the "Stokes Tournament." Whites will be the "rigor de jure" but certainly not a faint heart as this will be challenge for all...even someone with a titanium mallet.

The new Charles and Patti built flag pole with old glory flying is magnificent. Helping with installation were Tom, Claude, and others.

Howard and his building committee are busy with the new club alternatives. Especially difficult have been the pilings and underpinnings for the building.

Many thanks to club members Jack, Annette and family who came down from Hattiesburg area to entertain us with karaoke, Sat the 24th. What a crowd with a lot of talented member participation. Bobbie served up some great food along with her famous brownies. It was just more fun than should be legal.

With April's nice weather and longer days the Thursday night grille your own will be the place to mentally get ready for the weekends.

Fleet Captain's Report

MEMBERSHIP

Welcome aboard: Joe and Pat Bordelon, Greenville, MS, Frank Willet of Long Beach and Mark Hayes of Livingston, WA. Please make them feel welcome.

The following application will be presented to the Board of Governors meeting on 16 April 2007: Griff & Madeline Nolan, 26012 Wolf Creek Road, Kiln, MS 39556.

ADVERTISE HERE

Place your ad here for all to see. A one-eighth page (business card size) will cost you $20.00. Our publication run is 200 but it is read by many more than that, considering all of the other yacht clubs that get a copy of our Newsletter. Advertise your product or service and let the other members know just what you do for a living. Government employees and retirees will be exempt from this provision.

Send your business card to Ramona Suttkus, care of the yacht club, or email it to her at danneman@hughes.net.
