January 2023 Newsletter

From The Bridge

Commodore Jan Hansen

Members!

I would like to take the opportunity to wish everyone a Happy New Year! Even though it is past January 1, we still have this entire month to celebrate the onset of 2023. This year will hold so many opportunities for your club to expand and better serve you, our members.

As discussed in previous newsletters, we will start this year with making plans for campus improvements. Stay tuned as your Flag Officers and Board of Governors develop plans.

Beginning with this newsletter, you will see updates on our youth sailing program. This group of amazing kids are putting LBYC back on the map in terms of sailing experiences. As we struggle with the lack of a municipal harbor that can easily support an adult sailing group, we welcome our youth to blaze the trails (I guess that should have been some type of nautical term).

In addition, we will begin a new and improved Friday night menu. Come down on Friday nights and enjoy cooking by our new chef, Teondra Hicks. If you have come to Grill Your Own the last couple of weeks, you have seen her. She will be cooking and serving dinners on Friday nights beginning January 20. Check the menu out on this newsletter and in the weekly notices sent out!

It is going to be another amazing year at your Long Beach Yacht Club. Come down and enjoy!

Hope to see you at the club!

Jan

Friday Night Bell-Ringer

Joe Fleming

Santa Claus was good to the Long Beach Yacht Club in December. He delivered all winners. They were Kevin Smith, Lon Moran, Janet Bixler, Elvis Gates and Charlie McKay. Way to go Santa.

Perhaps your lucky time will come in 2023. You have to be in the building when your name is picked from the hat between 7 & 8:30 on Friday nights!

Junior Sailing

Krista Clark

We are very excited to have a sailing team in place at Long Beach Yacht Club! As we enter regattas, we are taking the races by storm! Our team has a fabulous group of kids! Practice is usually held on Wednesday afternoons. Come by the club when spring returns and check us out! A sailing club is being organized at Long Beach High School so we can grow our team!
