ARTICLE V GOVERNING BOARD

1. GOVERNING BOARD

- a) The affairs and general operations of the Club shall be managed by the Governing Board.
- b) The Governing Board shall consist of the following members who shall be elected by the membership: Commodore, Vice Commodore, Rear Commodore, Fleet Captain, and eight members and the immediate Past Commodore who are designated as Board Members.
- c) To be nominated, elected, or appointed to the Governing Board, a member must be in good standing. Either husband or wife may be elected or appointed to the Governing Board but at no time shall a husband and wife be concurrent members of the Board.

2. MEETING OF THE GOVERNING BOARD

- a) Regular meetings. The Governing Board shall meet not less than one time each month, at a regular time and place.
- b) Special meetings. Special meetings of the Governing Board shall be called at the request of the Commodore, or of any two officers other than the Commodore, or of any three members of the Governing Board.
- c) Presiding Officer. The Commodore shall preside over the Governing Board, and the Vice Commodore shall preside over the Governing Board in the absence of the Commodore, and the Rear Commodore shall preside in the absence of the Commodore and Vice Commodore.
- d) Quorum. A majority of incumbent Board members who are eligible to vote shall constitute a quorum.
- e) Location. Meetings may be held at the club or any other location as necessary to accommodate club needs. Meetings shall be held in-person or virtually via electronic means or a combination thereof.
- f) Official Act. Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, an act of the Governing Board shall be official if voted for by a majority of those present at a regular meeting or a duly called special meeting in which a quorum existed. Official acts of the Long Beach Yacht Club must be made only through its minutes.

3. AUTHORITY AND DUTIES

- a) General powers and responsibilities. The Governing Board shall have full power and authority to do all acts necessary and incidental to the proper administration of the Club and to the supervision of all phases of the operations of the Club and shall be responsible for the general care and upkeep of the property of the Long Beach Yacht Club.

- b) Membership responsibility. The Governing Board shall be responsible for processing and acting on proposals for membership in the Club subject to the limitations of these bylaws.
- c) Employment. The Governing Board shall have final authority and responsibility for hiring and firing of all employees of the Club and must approve the employment of the General Manager or managers of the Club and shall be responsible for directing such manager as to the nature and description of his duties and responsibilities for management and operation of the Club. The Governing Board may delegate to the appropriate standing committees of the Club the authority to reject or terminate such employees of the Club and the responsibility for hiring and firing of certain employees of the Club, other than the General Manager or managers, subject to the authority of the Governing Board.
- d) Appointment of Secretary and Treasurer. The Governing Board shall be responsible for the appointment of its Secretary and its Treasurer, who shall be responsible to and report to the Governing Board. The Secretary and the Treasurer will hold office for a period determined by the Governing Board, not to exceed the end of the fiscal year, and the Secretary and Treasurer shall have such responsibilities as hereinafter stated (Art. IV, 3). The Governing Board may combine the offices of Secretary and Treasurer and may replace the Secretary and/or Treasurer or may select an acting Secretary or Treasurer to serve during the absence or inability of the Secretary and/or Treasurer to serve.
- e) Requirement of Bonds. The Governing Board may require surety bonds to be executed by the Secretary and/or Treasurer, and/or the Manager or managers, and/or such other employees or officers of the Club, and in such amounts as may be determined by the Governing Board.
- f) Disciplinary authority. The Governing Board shall have the power to suspend for such period as it deems necessary the privileges or any particular privilege of the Club for any member, or member of the family for good cause; or, if it deems proper, to revoke a membership. Suspension or revocation shall be rendered by majority vote of the Governing Board only after a hearing at a regular or special meeting of the Governing Board. Such hearing may be initiated by the Governing Board, or shall be held by the Governing Board upon written complaint made and signed by any member or employee of the Club to the Governing Board against members or members of the family of members. Suspension or revocation may be imposed by the Governing Board only after the party complained of has been furnished a copy of said complaint or of the charges initiated by the Governing Board and given an opportunity to make appearance in his own behalf and call witnesses in his behalf at such hearing. The procedure of any such hearing shall be established by the Governing Board, and complaints may be summarily dismissed by majority vote of the Governing Board if it deems that the matters complained of do not merit disciplinary action. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the Governing Board. The Governing Board may act to reprimand or censure a member or member of the family of a member for matters of conduct of the member, member of the family or guest at any time with or without the formal hearing.
- g) Determining dues, assessments, initiation fees, or capital improvements fees and bonds. The Governing Board shall have the responsibility and authority to determine all dues, assessments, capital improvement fees and bonds for the fiscal year for which it is elected to serve in accordance with Article IX. The Governing Board may, at any time, determine initiation or capital improvement fees and bonds charged applicants proposed and approved for membership, and may act to specify the use of such initiation or capital improvement fees and bonds.

- h) Budget. The Governing Board shall adopt and approve a comprehensive budget for all operations of the Club each year as herein provided (Art. XI) and said budget shall not be altered except upon action of the Governing Board.
- i) Depositories. The Governing Board shall designate such Bank or Savings Association to be used as depositories for the funds of the Club, provided the same are federally insured. 4. VACANCY ON THE GOVERNING BOARD

If a flag officer or Governing Board vacancy occurs, the Governing Board may fill said vacancy until the next annual general membership meeting or may act with the remaining members until the next annual general membership meeting.

5. NOMINATING A TICKET FOR FLAG OFFICERS AND GOVERNING BOARD MEMBERS

- a) By the Nominating Committee. Not less than sixty (60) days prior to the annual general membership meeting, the Governing Board shall appoint a Nominating Committee in accordance with Art. VI, 2. The Committee shall nominate candidates for election of flag officers and the governing board. The list of candidates selected by the Nominating Committee shall be posted in the Club house and a copy thereof sent with the notice of the annual general membership meeting to all voting members of the Club by the Secretary no less than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the annual general membership meeting.
 - i. Persons serving on the Nominating Committee shall not be eligible to serve in an elected position for the term for which nominations are presented.
- b) Nominations of Alternate Tickets. Any seven (7) voting members in good standing may agree to place in nomination any other list of candidates or lists if more than one is properly placed in nomination. Not less than ten (10) days prior to the annual general membership meeting, such lists shall be posted in the Club house and shall be delivered to the Secretary to send copies to all voting members of the Club in the same manner as notice of the General Membership meeting is sent. An alternate list may include one candidate for each flag officer position and not more than eight candidates for Board Member. Alternate lists need not contain nominees for all positions.
- c) No nominations shall be considered at the general membership meeting except as made in the manner provided herein.

6. ELECTIONS

The election at the annual general membership meeting will be conducted in two phases.

- a) The first phase will be the election of officers. To be elected, a flag officer candidate must receive a majority of the votes cast. Where alternate nominees have been submitted, a voting member may cast one vote for each flag officer position and shall not be required to vote for all positions.
- b) The second phase will be the election of other Board members. This election is to fill four (4) two-year terms plus such one-year vacancies as may exist at this time. A voting member may cast one vote for each position to be filled and may vote for anyone duly nominated as a Board Member without being required to vote for all nominees from any list. The four candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to the two-year terms. The one-year terms shall be filled by the remaining candidates receiving the highest number of votes.
